Daly City's own entrant in the Pageant of Petals Queen Contest is attractive 9-year-old Bettie Jayne Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duffy, 141 Los Banos avenue. The winner of the contest will reign over San Mateo's Second Annual Pageant of Petals on Memorial Day. Purpose of the competition is to stimulate the sale of war bonds, according to the San Mateo Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors. Bettie Jayne is sponsored by the Daly City Record. The civic event will feature youth organization drill teams and bands, and floral floats. Chamber officials declared that besides emphasizing the sale of War Bonds, many of the colorful floats would depict the needs of the Red Cross, Blood Bank, USO and similar agencies.

Don't Miss "Hawaiian Paradise"

Better hurry and buy your ticket for "Hawaiian Paradise," swimming pageant to be presented by Jefferson Union high school, Thursday and Friday evenings, May 28 and 29. From all reports this year's event will top last year's program which jam-packed the spectators' balcony and drew comment from Bay area radio and newspaper men.

Girls in the floating formation above include Pat Thurer, Pat Clifton, Helen Sola, Bonnie McKenzie, Rose Carlsen, Lovetta Bradshaw, Dorothy Rodrigues, Marion Maloney, Helen Oxley, Dorothy Smith, Frances Oxley, and Mary Grenici.

More than a hundred students are participating, either as swimmers or models. Music will be furnished by the famous Indians of Rhythm. Tickets may be purchased at the high school or from any student.

Presents For Hirohito

Principal James E. Ferguson and a group of Jefferson Union high school students survey a week's collection of tin cans—destined to be made into bullets to help stop the Japs and Germans in their war of conquest. The high school's support of the drive is typical of all Daly City. This community has been turning in an average of two tons of properly prepared cans each week. All local schools, parochial, elementary and high, act as collection agencies for the vital tins. Each week on Friday, trucks pick up the collections. Anyone who wishes to help in the "Save Your Tin for Uncle Sam" campaign may do so by sending their tin cans to the schools with local students.

Will Take Drastic Steps To Enforce Local "Dim-Out"

Bodien Terms First Week Unsatisfactory, Urges Cooperation

Terming the first week's results in Daly City's dim-out, which authorized turning out or sufficiently shading all lights visible from the shore line, as unsatisfactory, Arthur J. Bodien, chairman of the Civilian Defense Council, issued a sharp warning to local residents and merchants that more drastic steps will be taken by the Navy if more lights are not put out.

The Civilian Defense Council in Daly City, as in all cities effected by the Navy's dim-out orders, was given full power by the Twelfth Naval District to see that all seaward lights were extinguished. If the rules are not followed, Lieutenant C. Ray Robinson, the Navy's light diminution administrator, told Bodien that federal law enforcement will turn the lights out.

Known to be the most visible of all lights from the ocean are the neon advertising signs and dis-

S. F. Chief Praises Safety Bars Here

After convincing state engineers that Daly City streets were in desperate need of safety bars or some type of raised marker for safety zones in the city limits, Police Chief James G. Reardon was commended for his project, Saturday, when the safety bars were praised by Charles Dullea, San Francisco chief of police.

Searching for a new type of safety marker for San Francisco, Police Chief Dullea, with Supervisor Adolph Uhl, made a trip to Daly City, Saturday, and inspected Chief Reardon's safety bars, which were installed here in March. Dullea praised the re-

Seek Indictment In Murder Case

Whether or not the Daly City court will proceed with the preliminary hearing of murder charges against George Pavlos, accused slayer of Robert Darnell, in the recent murder in Daly City, hinges on the grand jury decision in Redwood City tonight.

Deputy District Attorney Burruss Karmel will appear before the San Mateo County Grand Jury at 8 p. m. this evening in the Redwood City courthouse to seek an indictment against Pavlos. If the jury returns a murder indictment, tonight, tomorrow's preliminary hearing, scheduled for 2 p. m. in the Daly City court, will be dispensed with, and the

Urges Girls, Women To Join Corps At Once

To all girls and women of this community, an urgent appeal is made by Mrs. Jennie Borelli, private first class of the Women's Ambulance Defense Corps, to enlist in the service.

A few hours of leisure time each week is all that is required of recruits in serving with the women's corps, Mrs. Borelli pointed out, and enlistments were urged to be made without delay.

To enlist for the Women's Ambulance Defense Corps of America, or to seek more information about the organization, the prospective recruit may contact Mrs. Borelli at the Cut 'N Kurl Beauty Shoppe, 6654 Mission street.

She appealed to local women for speedy enlistments because confusion may be prevented in time of disaster if there is a practical knowledge of first aid at the scene of disaster.

Quirmbach Announces Opening Of Blood Bank

Arthur H. Quirmbach, Daly City captain in charge of the recent drive for the newly organized San Mateo County Blood Bank, announced that the Blood Bank will officially open tomorrow.

Dedication ceremonies will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. when a token blood donation will be made.

All captains were praised for their splendid cooperation in making the drive for funds a success. Captain in the Colma drive was Mrs. Stella Jensen.

Crane To Direct Establishment Of Raid Shelters

Coordinates Efforts With Red Cross Disaster Committee

Co-ordinating efforts with the San Mateo County Chapter American Red Cross Disaster committee, the local Civilian Defense Council has named R. L. Crane jr. as chairman of the local committee for establishment of air raid shelters in the city.

To provide shelter for disaster sufferers who are unable to find shelter through their own private resources, the local unit will make every effort to establish suitable shelters in private homes for sufferers from stricken communities. Crane is at present engaged in perfecting the organization of the committee and sub-committees.

In addition to the use of private homes, the Civilian Defense Council will also take steps in setting up mass billeting in build-

Job Questionnaires To Be Mailed Soon

When Daly City Draft Board No. 103 has finished mailing out occupational questionnaires this week to registrants of the third registration, the local draft office will begin mailing the job questionnaires to those who registered in the two former signups.

Schools Complete Rationing Duties

With the exception of applicants who possessed an excess amount of sugar at the time of the recent four day sugar rationing period, the Jefferson Elementary School district has now completed the issuance of war ration book one.

Almost No Contest In School Elections

With all but two offices in the county uncontested, San Mateo County voters in the 1942 election for school trustees went to the polls, Friday, to vote in candidates. Not only was the county short on opposition, but six school districts were without candidates.

In the Jefferson Elementary School district, William Sweeney returned to office as trustee of the grammar schools for the next term. Incumbents in the Jefferson Union high school election who were re-elected, Friday, were E. A. Weisenburger and Mrs. Pearl Jones. Polling was light in both the grammar schools and high schools. Only opposition in the county was in the local elections at Brisbane and Bayshore.

All Residents Urged To Donate To Aid Service Group

Destined to be the biggest wartime drive yet held in Daly City, the 1942 campaign for America's Number One service group—the United Service Organizations—opened this week to raise funds for aiding the men in America's armed forces.

Hundreds of Daly City youths are already serving in the nation's fighting ranks, while hundreds more are preparing to don uniforms in the next few months, and the question that comes home to every local parent is, "what is life in the service like to those boys?"

Formed when America was in the preparatory stages of the war, and proven to be the perfect army morale builder, the United Service Organizations have the answer to this question in the accomplishments which they can already boast. USO headquarters have sprung up in all parts of the world where American soldiers and sailors are quartered, including the naval bases and army camps within the country. There is plenty of reading material for American service men, thanks to the USO in cooperating with the American Red Cross and the American Library association. The USO has a mobile unit for serving coffee and other refreshments to service men while they are on duty. USO lounges are in all railway stations for service men between train times. But this doesn't even put a dent into the success of the USO in "keeping 'em happy."

In inaugurating the annual USO campaign in Daly City, Mayor A. J. Gaggero appointed William P. Bolger, desk sergeant of the local police department, to Latest permits for the purchase of tires, tubes, and retreading or recapping service issued from the San Mateo County Rationing Board, Northern district, included the names of nineteen applicants from the Daly City and Colma area, according to Johnny Dell, local board member.

Applicants who are eligible to purchase the rubber equipment for their automobiles and trucks from Daly City and Colma consist mostly of agriculturists who use their machines in transport of

There will be morning classes of instruction for non-swimmers, beginners, intermediates and those who want to learn life-

Daly City Police Recover Stolen Car

On the alert for a stolen car from San Francisco, two Daly City Police officers recovered the car after giving the driver a wild chase through local streets, early Sunday morning.

The chase ended in the collision of the stolen car with a power pole at the corner of Brunswick and Pope streets. Officers Henry Sundermann jr. and Joseph Kusber spotted the car

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Anderson, Daly City, are the proud parents of a son born, May 6, in San Francisco.

Another Daly City man is now with the U. S. Navy. Leon Herscowitz writes that he is located at San Diego, California, serving with the Navy.

The sewing club of Crocker Chapter No. 382, O. E. S., will hold a luncheon and meeting, Thursday, May 28 at 12:30 p. m. at Crocker Masonic hall. Hostesses will be Ann Nolte, Ina Lawrence, and Lillian Wickersham.

sults of the safety bars, and expressed the possibility that like safety markers would be installed in San Francisco. Chief Reardon has sought to install the safety bars for the past few years for further protection for pedestrians and street car passengers.

With funds from the state gas tax, City Engineer Robert Klassen installed Daly City's new safety zones at no expense to the city. The state engineers were first opposed to any installation, deeming it unnecessary, until Chief Reardon pointed out the protection value in the safety bars, also showing how the bars had the advantage over buttons in lowering the number of automobile accidents.

A special play period will be reserved for children under 4 feet in height who come into the pool with their parents. Classes of instruction will be available for children over 4 feet in height and for adults.

Sessions will be held every day including Saturdays. Each class is a half-hour long, except the life-saving class which will be held for an hour.

One free swim will be given for regular attendance during the eleven days.

"Anyone who is interested in learning to swim, dive or improve his or her strokes under competent instructors should enroll at the Jefferson Union high school swimming pool office any Saturday afternoon or week night on or before June 19," announced Miss Young. "In these stressing times, it is just as important to be able to swim a good distance, as it is to be able to swim," she concluded. Time will be arranged for swimmers who would like to increase their endurance and ability to swim a long distance.

No registrations will be accepted by telephone or mail; enrollment will be limited. For further information call Randolph 9898.

At Jefferson field, Daly City Juniors and the San Francisco Flower Growers will play the first game at 10 a. m., and the Brisbane Merchants will tangle with the Fourth Air Force at 2 p. m. The latter is a team from the Army Air Corps.

case will go directly to superior court in Redwood City without further legal proceedings in Daly City.

Pavlos, a cook in a local restaurant, is accused of killing Darnell with a .22 calibre rifle on the morning of Sunday, April 26, in the Hillcrest apartments, 27 Hillcrest drive. Pavlos was arrested by Daly City Police a few minutes after the murder, and was arraigned in justice court by Judge John J. Fahey jr. Pavlos is the only suspect in the case at present, and the outstanding evidence in the case is a rifle, owned by Pavlos and allegedly used in the shooting.

The gun was inspected by a criminologist in San Francisco, but the gun, which was broken when it was found in the light well outside Pavlos' room in the apartment house, was too badly damaged to produce any conclusive proof. No fingerprints were found on the gun, police said.

Mrs. Clara Parriot, who was formerly known as Darnell's wife, is the complaining witness in the case against Pavlos. In a recent inquest in Daly City, Mrs. Parriot testified that Pavlos had made an attempt to gain entrance to the Darnell apartment on the morning of the murder. After Darnell told him he was in the wrong apartment, there was a knock at the door twenty minutes later, according to her testimony, and Darnell went out into the hall, and she heard the shot soon after. No further evidence was produced at the inquest, which was conducted last week by Coroner William Crosby at the W. C. Lasswell mortuary.

Following are the jurors who served at the inquest: Angela Johnson, foreman; Katherine Core, Grace Bacigalupi, Kathryn Phelan, Gertrude Johnstone, and Evelyn Weckerle.

while patrolling the Crocker tract, and started to chase the driver. The chase continued through the Crocker tract and down Brunswick street at a 75-mile an hour clip, finally ending in the crash with the pole. No personal injury was sustained.

The car is owned by Alvin Stuart, San Francisco, who reported the theft. The machine was considerably damaged, especially in the front part of the car, which struck the pole.

W. M. Dietrich, a soldier, stole the machine, and was placed under arrest but Stuart declined filing charges. Dietrich had been drinking, police said, and was turned over to a military police officer from his camp. Dietrich admitted the theft of the car to police.

The marine gardens off the coast of Nassau are famous for their beautifully colored fish and strange but lovely undersea formations of coral which can be viewed through the crystal-clear waters from glass-bottomed boats which make regular trips from Prince George's Wharf.

'Shanghai Gesture' Opens Here Tonight

Reaching a goal long coveted by Hollywood's leading production companies, Producer Arnold Pressburger and Director Josef von Sternberg recently completed the film version of John Colton's famous hit play, "The Shanghai Gesture," and it is slated for its local premiere at the Daly City theatre, tonight, through United Artists release.

"The Shanghai Gesture" has a remarkable stellar cast headed by Gene Tierney, Walter Huston, Victor Mature, Ona Munson, Phyllis Brooks, Albert Basserman, Marie Ouspenskaya, Eric Blore, and a supporting cast of sixty others. There is little to differentiate the movie script from the original play, which at the time it was produced on Broadway by A. H. Woods, ran up a sensational record.

As is to be expected from a von Sternberg-directed picture, lavish sets provide the background for "The Shanghai Gesture."

Mother Gin Sling, a fascinating, glamorous woman bent on dire vengeance, is portrayed by Ona Munson; Gene Tierney plays Poppy, a girl who rushes headlong into disaster; Walter Huston is the smoothie, Sir Guy Charteris; and Phyllis Brooks appears as Dixie, a vivid blonde who doesn't know all the answers.

cover when they get a new one. To get a renewal of permission to purchase sugar, after all the stamps are gone from war ration book one, the sugar user must present the cover to the San Mateo County Rationing Board, Northern District, which is located at the post office in South San Francisco.

However, it is likely that a local center will be established later in Daly City where local householders may renew their ration books, according to R. L. Crane jr., chairman of the registration in Daly City.

Nearly twelve thousand people registered in Daly City grammar schools during the four day sign-up which took place during the first week in May. Aiding registrants in filling out the forms were the teachers of the grammar schools and a corps of fifty volunteers.

Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies

Poppies of patriotic remembrance will bloom in Daly City, tomorrow and Saturday, Mrs. Naomi Murphy, president of Daly City unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary, announced today.

Every man, woman and child in the city will be asked to wear a poppy on that day in honor of the men who have given their lives for America. The poppies will be distributed by volunteer workers from the auxiliary and the coins contributed for them will be used in Legion and auxiliary work for the war disabled, their families and the families of the dead. Poppy Day chairman is Mrs. Hilda Prziborski.

The poppies which will be distributed here have been made by disabled veterans at Yountville. Making the little red flowers has given many veterans employment during the winter and spring months. The work is limited to men receiving little or no government compensation and those with families to support.

Contributions received for the poppies on Poppy Day are a principal source of support for the vast welfare work carried out by the Legion and Auxiliary among the disabled men and dependent families. With the new war adding to America's list of war victims, there will be greatly increased need for funds during the coming year.

Poppy Day has been observed by the Legion and auxiliary annually for the past twenty years. With the nation again at war, the poppy has new significance this year and will be worn as a symbol of patriotism by millions of Americans throughout the country.

"DIM-OUT"

play lighting on business buildings, and the managers of local taverns, restaurants, and other places where this type of lighting was found, were warned to either extinguish lighting or black it out on the seaward side.

Visibility of lights in private homes can be eliminated if the shades or venetian blinds on the windows on the shore line side of the house are drawn all the way down.

Simple enough is the method of determining whether or not a light can be seen from the ocean. By standing at a place beside the light in question with the eyes at a level with the light and looking toward the ocean, a person can be assured that the light should be put out if the ocean can be seen.

In commenting on the dim-out, Bodien and Police Chief James G. Reardon estimated that 70 per cent of Daly City's street lights must be extinguished altogether or blacked out on the seaward side. Bodien has conferred with the Pacific Gas and Electric company in making provisions for the street light dim-out.

Eugene Norton Attends Civilian Protection School

Educated in army supervised classes of the War Department's Civilian Protection school at Stanford university, a third member of Daly City's civilian defense organization, Eugene Norton, 155 Winchester street, completed a ten day course recently at Palo Alto.

Following the training of Chief Air Raid Warden Arthur H. Quirnbach and First Aid Chief R. L. Crane jr., who took the ten day course some months ago, Norton received full day classes for ten days in intense drill in civilian defense by army experts in the field. Lieutenant Colonel Albert C. Billicke directed the classes over his staff of army officers and university professors.

On receiving his credentials, Norton, who is zone warden of eleven sectors in the north end of Daly City, became a full-fledged instructor in civilian protection. He announced, Monday, that he plans to begin classes in Daly City soon. In addition to the course at Stanford, Norton also took twelve hours of civilian defense training in San Bruno toward his education as an instructor.

Terming the ten day course at Stanford as a key to all available information on civilian protection, Norton assured everyone in the community who is interested in the safety of their families that he would be glad to help them through instruction of these courses here.

Some of the courses which Norton completed were aerial bombardment, munitions, high explosives, civilian protection, gas protection, incendiaries, and citizen's defense corps. Stanford university has furnished all classrooms for instruction and field space for demonstrations, and the men are housed in one of the university's dormitories. The course was attended by representatives from seven western states.

To Issue Tags For Children Soon

Identification tags will soon be issued to children of Daly City under eighteen years of age who were registered in the recent sign-up conducted by the Parent-Teachers associations.

During the registration, deposits were made by all parents who registered their children. The tags will be made up in San Mateo county and will be mailed to local grammar schools from office of the county superintendent of schools. An announcement will be made next week regarding when they will be received by the families who registered.

Fine Two Men In Indecent Film Case

Two men involved in the recent showing of indecent pictures in Daly City were fined on criminal charges, and a third was dismissed in the Daly City municipal court, Friday.

Joe Callahan, San Francisco, was fined $100 on the charge, and an accomplice, Tony Garguilo, also of San Francisco, was fined $50. Charges against the third man, Charles F. Knight, 250 Evergreen avenue, were dismissed. The three men were arrested two months ago when the Daly City Police department raided a local residence and found the indecent pictures in progress before a crowd of fifty spectators. The men did not appear in court but were represented by counsel.

Proceeding with traffic cases, Judge John J. Fahey jr. fined Robert Ely Peters, San Francisco, $50 for reckless driving in a city complaint signed by Officer Henry Sundermann jr.

Jack Clinton Walters, San Francisco, paid $6.50 for speeding in the city limits.

Job Questionnaires To Be Mailed Soon

complete the form and return it to headquarters.

Designed to supply the nation with the most efficient use of its manpower for war production, the occupational questionnaire is sent to all draft registrants so that the capabilities of each able-bodied man may be known and recorded.

Dr. J. C. McGovern, chairman of Daly City Board No. 103, urged all registrants to give careful consideration to the forms when they record their skills, experience and aptitudes.

Since many of the registrants of the first and second registrations are already in the armed forces, their occupational questionnaires will be mailed from the classification record in each local board office instead of from the list of registrants. When the forms are returned to the local boards they are checked for accuracy and divided into sections, one for the Bureau of Census, and another for the United States Employment Office.

On Fishing Trip

First Mace

The mace was provided for by a resolution adopted by the house during the first congress on April 14, 1789. The first mace used by the house was destroyed by fire when the British burned the Capitol in 1814. From that time until 1842 a mace of painted wood served. In that year the present mace was made in reproduction of the original. It is over three feet in height and consists of a bundle of ebony rods, representing the states, bound with a band of silver in imitation of the fasces. From the center protrudes the stem of a silver globe surmounted by a silver eagle with outspread wings.

The ladies announce a cash first award will be given along with many other lovely prizes.

ings which already exist, such as schools, churches, and community centers.

With the arrival, this week, of three hundred helmets purchased by the city for the use of civilian defense volunteers, basic training was being forwarded this week so that helmets could be issued to all those eligible. Helmets are available to all volunteers who have completed their basic training, according to classification requirements, free of charge. Those volunteers who have not completed the required basic training must deposit $2.06 for their helmets, and the money will be refunded to them after the duration.

Complying with the recent dim-out order by the Twelfth Naval District, which authorizes the dimming of all lights visible from the ocean, air raid wardens and auxiliary police officers are now being groomed to enforce the order. These civilian defense officers are charged with the responsibility of seeing that all such lights are not visible. Anyone who fails to comply with the request by civilian defense officers will be turned over to naval authorities, according to the new law.

Another recent development in civilian defense was the issuance, to heads of services in civilian defense, of permits to operate emergency vehicles during a blackout. To avoid a great number of cars on the streets during blackouts, only those vehicles classified as absolute emergency vehicles are given the permits.

act as chairman of the drive. Bolger's committee consists of Mrs. Ethel Dorn, 2 Risel street, secretary; Joe Firpo, Bank of America, treasurer; Albert H. Boynton, Daly City Record, publicity chairman; Elmer Kennedy, 301 Vista avenue; Fire Chief A. P. Chesney, Police Chief James G. Reardon, Arthur J. Bodien, Fred A. Collins, city employees; R. L. Crane jr., John Matzek, Arthur H. Quirnbach, American Legion; Howard McHugh, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Mrs. Ann Eason, 924 Hanover street; Mrs. Maisie Boyle, 131 Winchester street; and E. James Smith, 26 Bepier street.

Three thousand dollars is the goal which the Daly City campaign will strive to reach before July 4 when the drive ends. America's campaign for USO war funds has set a national quota of $32,000,000. Quota for California was set at $1,300,700.

Chairman Bolger announced this week that house to house canvasses will be made to every Daly City residence, and he urged the whole-hearted support of everyone so that Daly City will be well represented, financially, in aiding the United Service Organizations to carry on their fine work for men in uniform.

"We need the backing of every organization in this community in helping us to put this drive over," Bolger said as he issued his appeal, "but, more than that, we need the help of every individual in the community who can possibly contribute to the drive."

Mount Rainier

Mount Rainier, in Washington state, was named after the British admiral, Peter Rainier, who figured in the American Revolution. The name was bestowed by Capt. George Vancouver, English navigator and explorer, in 1792.

Reading & Writing

By Edwin Seaver and Robin McKown

For the first time since the Book-of-the-Month club started, it has selected a book after publication date. This book is Alexander P. de Seversky's "Victory Through Air Power." The Club's judges considered this book so important toward clarifying public opinion as to how the war has to be won that they decided to distribute it immediately, along with the book previously announced, Franz Werfel's "The Song of Bernadette."

While stressing the belief that "Victory Through Air Power" will revolutionize all our thinking about the war, the Book-of-the-Month Club has sent what might be called "a warning to laymen" to all its members. A special statement signed by Harry Scherman, president of the Club, and the board of judges, declares: "In reading this remarkable book about the air, keep your feet on the ground!"

William Allen White, one of the judges, states: "It is advisable for laymen to remember on reading 'Victory Through Air Power' that on one point—his advocacy of a separate air force—Major Seversky's conclusions still remain a thesis in a controversial field. The crucial theme of this book is nothing less than the winning or losing of the war, and with so much at stake, jumping quickly to conclusions is a peacetime luxury we cannot now indulge. At the same time the central theme seems indisputable: that the war cannot be won unless a total supremacy in the air is achieved and this idea itself must achieve total supremacy in the minds of our war managers or we shall never do all that is needed and all that we can do to bring the war to a successful conclusion for our side."

Seversky was the leading Russian ace in the first World War. He was adviser to the late General Billy Mitchell during the general's demonstration of the ability of aircraft to sink battleships, and was appointed consulting engineer to the War Department as a consequence. A leading airplane designer and long an exponent of a unified air command, Seversky pioneered in high altitude combat tactics; developed and built the first turbo-supercharged aircool-engine fighter.

He designed the world's first fully automatic bombsight. He likewise designed and built the world's fastest amphibian plane, the first low-wing basic training plane for the U. S. Army Air Corps, and is responsible for the development of American pursuit planes in their present form. "Victory Through Air Power" is a logical consequence of the Major's unceasing efforts for American supremacy in the air.

Philip Van Doren Stern, whose anthology "The Midnight Reader," contains fifteen masterpieces in ghost story literature, says that nothing is more infuriating to an intelligent adult than to read a ghost story that ends with a logical explanation of its mysteries. "No one wants to be made a fool of. Sheets and phosphorescent paint may serve to frighten children, but adults demand stronger stuff. They would rather believe that the phantom which made them shudder came from the very depths of Hell than from someone's box of manufactured tricks."

Any housewife who thinks she is abused because of sugar rationing should read "No Retreat," by Anna Rauschnig, a book about life in Nazi Germany from the woman's viewpoint. Mrs. Rauschnig's boy had to undergo a routine of fasting, exercise, and day-long hikes that his health couldn't stand. Her daughters were instructed that their sole purpose in life was to provide future soldiers for the Fuehrer. A mere minor annoyance was that she couldn't fire her cook who, in addition to being dirty and insolent, turned out to be a Gestapo spy.

SENIOR JINX

Another semester is rolling to a close; another group of seniors are getting ready to leave the old school house for bigger and better things, and as usual the program put on for the students by members of the senior class was met with great enthusiasm.

Friday afternoon saw just about all of the graduating seniors on the stage taking part in the Senior Jinx.

Theme of this semester's fun frolic was "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" written and directed by that popular senior, Roy DeVincenzi. DeVincenzi and his committee and all members of the senior group should receive a hand for their swell performance.

All proceeds from this event will go to defray the expenses of the senior ball.

At the opening of the skit, Joyce Russel and Carmel Robin introduced the class production with a poem written for the occasion by DeVincenzi.

Band playing was under the direction of Bob Seiler. Singers of the afternoon were Harland Fernando and Curt Teal.

DeVincenzi's ever popular impersonation of Carmen Miranda was well received. He sang several numbers, one of which proved to be the hit of the afternoon—"The Man with the Lollipop Song." During this number, he walked through the audience throwing hundreds and hundreds of gaily-wrapped lollipops to the students.

The train and setting were all prepared by the members of the stage crew.

ASSEMBLIES

Boris Karloff in "Mr. Wong, Detective" is the special feature on today's and tomorrow's assembly. The price of admission is nominal.

Seniors dressed like kids were the main attraction of Tuesday's assembly. You guessed it. It was "Kid's Day" and the seniors were allowed one last fling before going out into the world as grown-ups.

The assembly was started with two features—"Babes in the Woods" and a technicolor cartoon. At the close of the movies a fashion parade by the seniors, was held to determine who made the cutest baby.

Soldavini Announces Buick Training Program

An intensive training program for ground troops of the Army Air Force designed to produce an adequate supply of fully trained aircraft engine overhaul mechanics to the fighting fronts, was announced today by the Buick division of General Motors Corporation, according to John Soldavini, manager of Belli Motor company, local Buick sales and service.

With production of aircraft engines by this manufacturer already a year ahead of schedule and accelerating at a rapid rate, the training course will be devoted to field and depot servicing of this type engine, providing expert mechanics in the numbers needed to overhaul, service, and repair the engines in action.

The school will be conducted in a Buick service plant which has been fully converted for the purpose, and will be exclusively for enlisted personnel of the Air Forces who have been selected by the Air Service Command, as a result of aptitude tests and their individual preference, as top flight candidates for aviation mechanics training.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Requests Observance Of Memorial Day

Mrs. Edna Johnsen, Americanism chairman of Old Glory Auxiliary No. 2044, today issued a statement from the Ladies Auxiliary to the V. F. W. Department of California. The request is backed by the local V. F. W. groups.

It reads, in part: "We respectfully urge that all shops and places of business (not directly connected with war production) remain closed until noon on Saturday, May 30, Memorial Day, and that employers and employees join with the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the general public in observing this day set aside for the commemoration of those who have given their lives for our country and its principles of freedom and democracy in former wars.

"We further urge all places of business flying flags on Memorial Day to observe correct flag etiquette for that day by flying flags at half mast until noon—full mast in the afternoon. This Memorial Day finds the entire Nation in true mourning for those who have been and others who will be sacrificed ere the war clouds break away and the sun of peace shines once more on our beloved country."

NUTRITIVE COOKING

RETAINS MINERALS AND VITAMINS FOR HEALTH!

Vitamins and Minerals...

Here's how to cook and boil them, so as not to waste and spoil them:

1. Use little water. Start vegetables in boiling water.
2. Cook slowly so as to steam through.
3. Cook vegetables as nearly whole as possible. Do not stir.
4. Prevent shrinkage of meat with low-temp roasting.

HOMEMAKERS throughout America are enlisted for the duration of the war to carry on with Nutritive Cooking.

Nutritive Cooking means just one thing—getting the most out of food that is cooked. Proper cooking retains vitamins and minerals that are in all foods. Improper cooking boils out or destroys these body-building food energies.

Follow the recipes and the menus in your local newspaper and in national magazines that tie-in with the National Nutrition program. Buy food wisely. Store it right. Cook it properly. Take good care of your present range so that it will carry on efficiently and economically for years to come.

Consult your dealer about the care and repair of your range.

Main Dish

for a wartime luncheon

Dorothy Greig

THERE'S a wartime simplicity to this dish. It looks festive, yes—with its gleaming red top and creamy base. But for all that, it takes little time to whisk together. Your refrigerator does most of the work.

Having a friend or two in for luncheon before the afternoon's war relief work? Then this might well be the main dish. It is nourishing but not rich. It has lovely flavor. Surround it with chilled fresh greens and pass tiny hot biscuits with it.

Chicken-Tomato Ring

Red Layer:

1 package lemon flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup condensed tomato soup
Pour one cup of boiling water over the lemon flavored gelatin and stir until dissolved. Then add the soup. Pour into a mold and when congealed, cover with the following:

White Layer:

1 package cream cheese (3 oz.)
1 can condensed chicken soup
2 teaspoons gelatin (softened in 2 tablespoons cold water)
2 tablespoons salad dressing or mayonnaise

Put the cream cheese in a bowl; then mash and mix well with a fork. Heat the chicken soup and pour over the gelatin stirring until dissolved. Add the soup mixture to the cream cheese a little at a time and mix well after each addition until creamy. When cool, add salad dressing or mayonnaise. Cover red layer in mold with chicken mixture. Place in refrigerator until firm.
To serve: Turn out on lettuce or all the center with greens.

EVER TRY THIS ONE?

Tear a sheet of newspaper "with" the grain and you'll be able to make a straight, clean tear. Give a piece of paper to a friend so that he holds it "against" the grain and he'll be unable to tear it straight.

Give us an automobile that needs repair work and we'll have it running perfectly in record time. Because our skilled workmen know their business, they'll do a first class job—AND, you'll find our prices pleasing.

Horses Not Born White

Horses are seldom white at birth. They may be born gray and as they grow older turn white. Circus horses are usually Arabian horses. Gray is common in this breed.

Ultra-Violet Light Rays

Ultra-violet light rays have four times as much energy as violet rays, and eight times that of red light rays, according to the Better Vision institute.
